

Friendship - 2

1. Johanna is well-informed about genetics which is also called Mendelism. She is very - - - - on this scientific discipline.

- A) knowledgeable
- B) memorable
- C) predictable
- D) sustainable
- E) favorable

2. I went on a trip to New Zealand on my last holiday. I visited Milford Sound. I think it is - - - - Bay of Islands located in the same country.

- A) more attractively
- B) the most attractive
- C) the least attractive
- D) as incredibly attractive as
- E) much more attractive place

3. I am going to move to England next month. Happily, I am - - - - than ever to you.

- A) closer
- B) closing
- C) most close
- D) more close
- E) more closing

4. Elizabeth never tells the truth whereas Julia is a reliable person, so - - - -.

- A) they have similar personalities
- B) Elizabeth loves people very much
- C) Elizabeth is more polite than Julia
- D) Julia is more honest than Elizabeth
- E) Elizabeth is more talkative than Julia

5. Christopher : Ann likes pets, but Alan dislikes them.
Lauren : You mean that they - - - -.

- A) will adopt a pet
- B) have some similar interests
- C) may behave badly towards animals
- D) have to recognize the animal rights
- E) differ in their attitudes towards pets

6. Jacob : Are you free on Wednesday?
Larissa : I'm sorry, I am not. I have an appointment with my life coach.

Jacob : Why do you need to see a life coach?

Larissa : - - - -.

- A) I need to talk you for two reasons
- B) That's why I have decided to see the doctor
- C) Because being too busy may kill your inspiration
- D) The real reason for my depression is your rudeness to me
- E) Because I want to set right goals and overcome challenges in life

Friendship - 2Answer the question 7- 9. according to the text below.

. . . On Friday, 11 th December, 2016, a man arrived in the village. It was late in the evening. He was looking for somewhere to stay the night and knocked at a door. A gray haired and tall woman opened it.

‘Good evening, Are there any rooms in this hotel? I want to stay here tonight to see your village tomorrow.’ said the man. The woman shouted in anger and said: ‘No, there isn’t.’ He was very polite. He was slim and had brown hair. And he had strange hazel eyes . . .

7. What can be understood about the man?

- A) The woman’ s rudeness makes him upset.
- B) He stays at a hotel on Friday, 11th December,2016.
- C) He comes across a hotel and feels lucky at that moment.
- D) He reveals a strange village people didn’t know before.
- E) Unlike the woman, the man has good manners towards her.

8. Which question is NOT answered in the text?

- A) What was he like?
- B) What was she like?
- C) Why did the woman refuse him?
- D) What did the old woman look like?
- E) Why did the man want to stay at that hotel?

9. What can be understood about the woman in the text?

- A) She was a rude woman.
- B) She wanted him to help.
- C) She thought he is very strange man.
- D) She was the owner of the hotel.
- E) She helped him with a good mannerism.

Answer the question 10 - 12. according to the dialogue below.

Jeremy :I think you are - - - - (10) interested in learning English by reading books than Matthew.

Elisabeth : Yes, I am. I believe that the - - - - (11) way to learn new vocabulary is to meet them in the context.

Loorena :I completely agree with you, Elisabeth. Meeting new vocabularyin the contexts and using them in various conversations is - - - - (12) just memorizing.

10.

- A) well
- B) more
- C) much
- D) better
- E) worse

11.

- A) best
- B) well
- C) worse
- D) as good as
- E) more good

12.

- A) more effectiver than
- B) more effective than
- C) most effective way
- D) effectiver than
- E) effective than

